Media Release

Case Number: 20-000069
Location: Napa, CA

The Napa Police Department (NPD) is aware of allegations of potential fraudulent fund-raising activities related to the Napa Valley Unified School District's (NVUSD) lunch program. Napa PD is investigating the allegations and asks anyone with information to contact School Resource Officer Darlene Elia at 707-258-7880, extension 5211 or DElia@CityOfNapa.org.

The Napa Police Department is working with NVUSD and has confirmed their long-standing policy that no child is ever refused lunch because of an outstanding lunch debt or inability to pay. Anyone with questions concerning NVUSD's school lunch policies is asked to contact NVUSD Representative Stacy Rollo at srollo@nvusd.org.

Both the Napa Police Department and Napa Valley Unified School District encourage those wishing to make charitable donations to any cause to research the organization to which they wish to give.
